Thank You, Winkie Creamer, for Sharing Your Expertise

"I work on tracking down foundations that might support the Bhutto Leadership Program. I spend a few hours a month doing something that I did regularly when I was always looking for funding for my own research. I've already found that there are very few programs like the Bhutto Leadership Program and that it fills a tremendous need by providing opportunities for Muslim professional women to network, learn and become recognized leaders. The hunt for funding puts me in touch with classmates who I may not have known well, or at all as an undergrad, but whose efforts I admire and whose goals I share. Building ClassACT and the Bhutto program shows that we are still capable of making a difference."- Winkie Creamer, pictured on a recent trip to the Galapagos

Is ClassACT 'Improbably Idealistic'? Ask Charles Bush and Steve Milliken

Change the World

Rick Brotman filmed an interview in which ClassACT founding board member Therese Steiner discusses HR'73's pioneering nature, and the model for change that ClassACT has created. Find the video on our website, Youtube channel, and Facebook.

Reunion Update

JOIN US Saturday October 13 at 11:30 for LUNCH (after the Class Photo) at the Geo Labs Lecture Hall, 20 Oxford Street—our first Bhutto Fellows will talk about why they are here at the Kennedy School and their hopes for the future.

AFTER LUNCH stay for our PANEL, “Change the World 2018? Why not, HR73!” A conversation with classmates about their work creating positive change across the globe and the ways in which ClassACT has assisted them, moderated by Therese Steiner and Leigh Hafrey. The stories they have to tell are amazing!

Save the Date

Mark your calendars for JusticeAid's upcoming events. On the afternoon of November 11, they will hold a public forum at Riverside Church, Racism and the Criminalization of Poverty in 21st Century America, featuring the ACLU's Jeffery Robinson. On November 13 from 7-10 pm (doors open at 6:30) at City Winery, they will host a benefit concert celebrating the 300th Anniversary of New Orleans, featuring Dr. Michael White and his Original Liberty Jazz Band and singer Topsy Chapman. Their concert will support their beneficiaries Civil Rights Corps and Essie Justice Group in their fight against racism and economic inequality in our legal system.

Look out for our next newsletter for JusticeAid panel registration and concert tickets, more news from classmates, and more details on ClassACT events at reunion!
