Greetings!

Our classmate, David Weeks, working with Ghanaian students and alums at his school, Glenelg Country School (Ellicott City, MD), has helped found the Salih Vocational Center in Kumasi, Ghana.

David writes:

I just had a Board meeting for the Salih Center and I am looking for sewing machines (electric and nonelectric (pedal)) for the vocational program. The orphaned and disadvantaged girls are hoping to secure a bread and butter contract that will have them making student uniforms for one or more area schools. Having school contracts will provide steady income.

Do you have a working sewing machine you don't use? Would you be willing to donate a new one?

If so, contact David (weeks@glenelg.org)

Thanks!!!
